

Case study: Marjolo

Sheffield-based IT consultancy with blue-chip clients secures £200,000 investment to target new markets and expand its team

What funding has it secured?

Product

Revolving credit facility

Amount

£200,000

How will it use the money?

Strengthen working capital position to enter new markets and expand team

The Sheffield-based firm will use the funds to branch out into new markets and expand its team.

What does the company do?

Marjolo is an IT consultancy with proven experience in business architecture, strategic vision, process optimisation, digital transformation and more. It operates in both the private and public sectors.

Why did we fund this firm?

Growth Lending's regional director Tom Seymour was impressed by the company's ethos. "It was clear that the team had a solid vision and values we could buy into," he says. "Working with them has been straightforward and this will be an exciting client to watch as the business grows rapidly in the coming months."

Why choose Growth Lending?

"Growth Lending has been so easy to work with – the team understands us and the growth we want to achieve. Funding can seem complex, but they are able to explain their products in a way that anyone can understand. I feel very lucky to work with a funder like Growth Lending and hope to have the team alongside us as our growth continues," says Marjolo founder Dave King.

Fun fact:

Marjolo has worked with major clients such as Autoglass and O2 in the private sector and with the Ministry of Defence and the Cabinet Office in the public sector.

Read the full story here